Janice Gratton

- Accountable—to make tough decisions and measure good work
- Responsible—to provide quality education for all of Multnomah County's Children
- Experienced—to move through tough times with resilience

Janice lives in mid-county with her husband of 40 years. She has on the Multnomah ESD Board since 1995, serving as Chair twice and as Vice Chair. Janice has 37 years of experience in public service, most of that time spent serving children and families in Multnomah County. She has been a teacher, a parent and a community volunteer (Scouts, Goose Hollow Family Shelter, Early Childhood Mental Health Partnership, Early Childhood Council, Board of Directors-Samaritan Counseling Center). She developed and delivered many services to Multnomah County's children including the School Mental Health Program, Early Childhood Mental Health, the Partner's Project, School-Based Health Center Mental Health Services, CARES, NW Family Support Program, and the Children's Receiving Center. She currently serves the Native American Rehabilitation Center and the Children's Relief Nursery.
